

TRANSPORTATION

An estimate of expenses associated with commuting to school is specified in the COA Budget and based upon national and regional recommendations published by the College Board. The actual cost incurred by an individual student varies among the student population.