

ATTENDANCE

Students not attending regularly will be referred to their advisor and financial aid officer. If a student wishes to be excused from a class, it is the student's responsibility to clear the absence with the instructor. At that time, the student must arrange for make-up assignments. Non-attendance may carry financial aid ramifications.